OUTGOING BOARD MEMBERS

Shellie Wolverton

Thanks to Shellie for her six years of service on the board. We appreciate her heart and vision for the church and her willingness to serve the church in this way.

Efa Etoroma

Remembering Efa with gratitude for nine years of faithful service, steady leadership, and a heart that loved the Lord and truly cared for our church family.

NOMINEES

Sheeba George Matthews

Sheeba has been a member of Hope City Church since 2005 when she moved to Canada and married her husband of 20 years, Alvin. Sheeba and Alvin have served in various capacities including on the worship team, as a choir member, in children's ministry, Alpha, marriage and small groups. Sheeba has two children, aged 15 and 12, and they enjoy serving in the preschool class together, playing hockey and doing cheer. Sheeba is an avid Oilers fan, enjoys early morning Orange Theory workouts, podcasts and great books, as well as watching heart-wrenching dramas and buying houseplants.

She has been a social worker for 24 years and currently manages the adoption programs for the province of Alberta. Sheeba has served on the Shiloh board for over 10 years and is passionate about serving marginalized populations, promoting diversity and inclusion and sharing the compassionate heart of Jesus with others. She is grateful for the spiritual foundation Hope City has provided and for the church's commitment to being for the community.

NOMINEES

Jon Janz

Jon is married to Danae, and together they have three children - Rebecca, Grace, and Josiah. Born and raised at Hope City, he grew up running through the halls of the old church and has always considered it home.

A dentist by profession, he also enjoys football, anything involving the outdoors, and coaching his son's soccer team.

He's passionate about people and about seeing lives transformed through the local church. Over the years, he has co-led small groups with Danae, served in kids' ministry, and previously sat on the church board.

NOMINEES (INCUMBENT)

Kim Boldt

Kim Boldt recently retired from dentistry to spend time in the Word, prayer, and volunteering at the Pregnancy Care Centre, Samaritan's Purse and here at Hope City. Kim and her husband Curt love our church and have attended faithfully since 2007. They lead small groups and serve on the welcome team at the Terwilliger Campus.

Their children attend TW and The Project, serving in music and youth ministries. Kim is grateful for the opportunity to utilize her growth-oriented and futuristic mindset to be a part of what the Lord is doing through our church, His body.

NOMINEES (INCUMBENT)

Oye Soyeye

Oye has been attending Hope City Church since 2010. He is married to Patience and blessed with two children, Iyanu (Wonders of God) and Ileri (Promise of God).

He is a family physician with interest in seniors care. He loves the Lord with his heart, mind and soul. Previously, he had served as a board member of Hope City Church for nine years and over the years, he has volunteered as a greeter, a life team leader, medical emergency/support team and part of the Church prayer partners.

Oye also enjoyed being an encourager of young adults. He believes that with God all things are possible.

He loves travelling and meeting people from all aspects of life.
